APPLICATION OF ENGLISH LAW REGULATIONS [•]

Regulations to apply English common law (including equity) and certain statutes in the Global Market.

Date of Enactment: [•]

1. Application of common law and equity

- (1) The common law of England (including the principles and rules of equity), as it stands from time to time, shall apply and have legal force in, and form part of the law of, the Global Market.
- (2) The common law of England shall apply and have legal force in, and form part of the law of, the Global Market:
 - (a) so far as it is applicable to the circumstances of the Global Market;
 - (b) subject to such modifications as those circumstances require;
 - (c) subject to any amendment thereof (whenever made) pursuant to any Abu Dhabi Law or Global Market Regulation; and
 - (d) notwithstanding any amendment thereof as part of the law of England made pursuant to an Act or any instrument adopted thereunder at any time after the date of enactment of these Regulations, which amendment shall have no application and legal force in the Global Market, unless and until it is so applied and given legal force by a Global Market Regulation.
- (3) Subsection (1) is subject to any contrary provision in any Abu Dhabi Law or Global Market Regulation. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between (a) a provision, rule or principle of the common law of England (including the principles and rules of equity) and (b) any provision, rule or principle of any Abu Dhabi Law or Global Market Regulation or of any other legal instrument adopted pursuant thereto, the latter shall prevail.
- (4) Where a particular rule or principle of the common law of England (including the principles and rules of equity) has been abolished by a provision of an Act or any other instrument made thereunder, and such provision does not apply and have legal force in, and form part of the law of, the Global Market, the rule or principle shall, notwithstanding such abolition but subject to subsection (2), apply and have legal force in, and form part of the law of, the Global Market.
- (5) Where a particular rule or principle of the common law of England (including the principles and rules of equity) has been modified by a provision of an Act or any other instrument made thereunder, and such provision does not apply and have legal force in, and form part of the law of, the Global Market, the rule or principle shall, notwithstanding such modification but subject to subsection (2), apply and have legal force in, and form part of the law of, the Global Market without giving effect to any such modification.

2. Application of certain statutes and jurisprudence

- (1) The Acts specified in the first column of the Schedule, as and to the extent in force in England at the date of enactment of these Regulations, shall apply and have legal force in, and form part of the law of, the Global Market to the extent specified in the second column thereof and subject to any omissions, insertions and modifications set out in that column.

- (2) The jurisprudence of the courts of the United Kingdom in relation to (i) the common law of England (including the principles and rules of equity) and (ii) a provision of any Act, made applicable in the Global Market pursuant to subsection (1), shall form part of the law of the Global Market as follows:
 - (a) the jurisprudence of all the courts of the United Kingdom (including the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council) shall be taken into account, but need not be followed, by the Court;
 - (b) the jurisprudence of the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom (including any jurisprudence of the Appellate Committee of the House of Lords prior to the constitution of the Supreme Court) shall be binding on, and shall be followed by, the Court.
- (3) The Acts referred to in subsection (1) and the jurisprudence referred to in subsection (2) shall apply and have legal force in, and form part of the law of, the Global Market:
 - (a) so far as they are applicable to the circumstances of the Global Market;
 - (b) subject to such modifications as those circumstances require;
 - (c) subject to any amendment thereof (whenever made) pursuant to any Abu Dhabi Law or Global Market Regulation; and
 - (d) notwithstanding any amendment thereof as part of the law of England made pursuant to an Act or any instrument adopted thereunder at any time after the date of enactment of these Regulations, which amendment shall have no application and legal force in the Global Market, unless and until it is so applied and given legal force by a Global Market Regulation.
- (4) Subsections (1) and (2) are subject to any contrary provision in any Abu Dhabi Law or Global Market Regulation. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between (a) a provision of any Act applicable in the Global Market by virtue of subsection (1) or any jurisprudence applicable in the Global Market by virtue of subsection (2) and (b) any provision, rule or principle of any Abu Dhabi Law or Global Market Regulation or of any other legal instrument adopted pursuant thereto, the latter shall prevail.
- (5) In relation to any Act specified in the Schedule and for the purposes of the interpretation of any Global Market Regulation, unless the context otherwise requires or unless specified otherwise in these Regulations or by any other Global Market Regulation or by Abu Dhabi Law —
 - (a) any reference to the United Kingdom, England and Wales, England or Great Britain shall be read as a reference to the Global Market, and "English", "British" and related expressions shall be construed accordingly;
 - (b) any reference in such Act to a provision of any other Act shall be read as a reference to such provision as applied in, having legal force in, and forming part of the law of, the Global Market;

- (c) any reference in a Global Market Regulation to such Act shall be read as a reference to such Act as applied in, having legal force in, and forming part of the law of, the Global Market;
 - (d) the words "statute" or "enactment" shall be read as referring to any of (i) a Federal Law applicable in the Global Market, (ii) an Abu Dhabi Law applicable in the Global Market, (iii) a Global Market Regulation, or (iv) any other Act applied and having legal force in the Global Market pursuant to these Regulations, and "statutory" and like expressions shall be construed accordingly;
 - (e) where any provision of such Act stands repealed in relation to England as of the date of enactment of these Regulations, it shall not apply and have legal force in, and form part of the law of, the Global Market, notwithstanding that (i) the repeal is, in England, subject to any savings or transitional provisions, (ii) the repealed provision is not specifically omitted in the Schedule, and (iii) the provision of the repealing Act that effects the repeal is omitted by the Schedule or does not, pursuant to the Schedule, apply and have legal force in, and form part of the law of, the Global Market;
 - (f) where any provision of such Act has been modified or inserted into such Act by a provision of another Act and the first provision is, pursuant to these Regulations, applied and has legal force in, and forms part of the law of, the Global Market, it shall do so (or do so with such modification, if applicable) even if the second provision does not, pursuant to that Schedule, apply and have legal force in, and form part of the law of, the Global Market and even if the second provision is omitted pursuant to the Schedule;
 - (g) any reference or provision relating to Scotland or Northern Ireland or to any Act relating to Scotland or Northern Ireland shall be disregarded;
 - (h) any requirement to consider or apply public policy shall be construed as referring to the public policy of the Global Market;
 - (i) any references to "real estate", "land", or "real property" shall be read as references to "real property", as defined in the Real Property Registration Regulations [●];
 - (j) any reference to "mortgage" or "charge" in relation to land shall be read as a reference to "mortgage", as defined in the Real Property Registration Regulations [●];
 - (k) any reference to a "personal representative" shall be read as a reference to the legal heir or representative of a deceased person;
 - (l) any reference to the "Board" inserted in such Act by these Regulations shall be read as a reference to the Board;
 - (m) any reference in such Act to any provision of such Act that is omitted pursuant to the Schedule shall also be omitted;
 - (n) any reference to "person" shall be read as including a body of persons corporate or unincorporated; and
 - (o) any reference to "month" means a calendar month.
- (6) Except as provided in these Regulations, no Act shall be part of the law of the Global Market.

- (7) In applying the common law of England (including the principles and rules of equity) in the Global Market, the provisions of subsection (5) shall be followed, unless the context otherwise requires or unless specified otherwise in these Regulations or by any other Global Market Regulation or by Abu Dhabi Law.
- (8) The Board may in any manner it thinks fit publish copies of the Acts which apply and have legal force in, and form part of the law of, the Global Market reflecting such revisions as are made by these Regulations.
- (9) The copies of Acts published in accordance with subsection (7) shall, in the Court and for all purposes related to determining the law of the Global Market, be treated as authentic texts of those Acts as applicable, having legal force in and forming part of the law of, the Global Market.

3. Concurrent administration of law and equity

- (1) The Court and all tribunals in the Global Market shall administer English common law and equity on the basis that, wherever there is any conflict or variance between the rules of equity and the rules of the common law with reference to the same matter, the rules of equity shall prevail.
- (2) The Court and all tribunals in the Global Market shall, when applying the law of the Global Market, give the same effect -
 - (a) to all equitable estates, titles, rights, reliefs, defences and counterclaims, and to all equitable duties and liabilities; and
 - (b) subject thereto, to all legal claims and demands and all estates, titles, rights, duties, obligations and liabilities existing by the common law or by any custom or created by any other law in force in the Global Market, and, subject to the provisions of these Regulations and any other law, shall so exercise their jurisdiction in every cause or matter before them as to secure that, as far as possible, all matters in dispute between the parties are completely and finally determined, and all multiplicity of legal proceedings with respect to any of those matters is avoided.

- (3) Nothing in these Regulations shall affect the power of the Court to stay any proceedings before it, where it thinks fit to do so, either of its own motion or on the application of any person, whether or not a party to the proceedings.

4. Power to remove difficulties

- (1) The Board may, where it considers it necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing any difficulty arising from local conditions or circumstances in the application of any provision in any Act specified in the Schedule, by resolution modify or substitute that provision.

5. Interpretation

In these Regulations, unless the context indicates otherwise, the defined terms listed below shall have the corresponding meanings:

"ADGM Basic Law" means Abu Dhabi Law No. 4 of 2013 concerning the Abu Dhabi Global Market issued by the Ruler;

"Act" means an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, an Act of the Parliament of Great Britain or an Act of the Parliament of England, as the context requires;

"Board" means the Board of Directors of the Global Market, being the governing body of the Global Market, established under Article 4 of the ADGM Basic Law;

"Court" means any of the Global Market courts established under the ADGM Basic Law;

"Global Market" means the Abu Dhabi Global Market, the Financial Free Zone established pursuant to Federal Decree No. (15) of 2013 concerning the Establishment of a Financial Free Zone in the Emirate of Abu Dhabi;

"Ruler" means the ruler of the Emirate of Abu Dhabi;

"Schedule" means a schedule to these Regulations; and

"writing" means any mode of communication that preserves a record of the information contained therein and is capable of being reproduced in tangible form, including electronic means.

6. Short title, extent and commencement

- (1) These Regulations may be cited as the "Application of English Law Regulations [•]".
- (2) These Regulations shall apply in the Global Market.
- (3) These Regulations come into force on the date specified by the Board in the resolution approving the adoption of these Regulations. Such resolution may make any transitional, transitory, consequential, saving, incidental or supplementary provision as the Board thinks fit.
